

The Team is ready for the WSK Super Master Series round of La Conca

Forza Racing is ready for the third and penultimate round of the WSK Super Master Series scheduled this weekend at the World Circuit La Conca.

The team, present on the Puglia-region circuit since last week for a number of tests, shall present itself with 4 drivers, two in the Junior class and two in Senior. Van T'Hoff at the moment is in doubt due to an injury suffered during the test.

OKJ - Arvid Lindblad, Jonathan Weywadt.

OK - Dilano van T'Hoff (in dubt), Gilles Stadsbader.

Jamie Croxford, Team Owner: «This track has a special flavor for us, as last year it was the venue for the presentation of our new structure. Finally, we'll find a milder climate, allowing us to make even more reliable assessments. I wish a rewarding weekend for all my team.»

The 3rd of the WSK Super Master Series will start on Thursday with Free Practice, followed on Friday, by the Qualifying Practices and the first heats, which will end Saturday. Lastly, Sunday for the moment of truth with Prefinals and Finals.

© photo: M.Perrucca

