

Laurens van Hoepen ready to fight back in La Conca

After the unfortunate round of the WSK Super Master Series, Laurens van Hoepen is ready to take the fight to the La Conca World Circuit.

The Dutch driver has so far proved to have good potential; alas, bad luck stopped him from making the most of that potential in the final stages of the competitions. La Conca will, therefore, be a good chance for him to make up for lost time and aim for the top spots of the standings.

Van Hoepen has never hidden his appreciation of the Puglia-located track, a track on which he did a super job already last year in his first year in OKJ.

Laurens van Hoepen: «The race in Lonato saw us the victim of bad luck; that's racing, too, unfortunately. This break has done me good. Now I feel completely reconstituted and ready for the challenge of the WSK Super Master Series of La Conca, on a track that I've always appreciated.»

The race in La Conca will start on Thursday with Free Practice, followed on Friday by the Qualifying Practices and the first heats, which will end Saturday. Lastly, Sunday for the moment of truth with Prefinals and Finals.
