The 18th Winter Cup edition, taking place on next weekend, will be the opportunity to see in action, in 2013, all drivers of the Tony Kart Racing Team.

After the excellent debut of KF category, at La Conca, on the occasion of the opening race of the WSK Master Series, the Winter Cup is going to be the opportunity to see our KZ drivers, too. This way, we will see at the track the leaders of the category with the gearbox, Ardigò, Dreezen, Torsellini and the new ones for KZ class, Camponeschi e Philo.

The World Champion for KF1 Flavio Camponeschi together with Armand Philo Paz will have their debut on the occasion of the South Garda competition in the category with the gear. We have always had a primary role at the Winter Cup, just to mention that in the past two editions winners were two Tony Kart-Vortex drivers. Particularly, in 2011 the winner was Hajek and on last year our official driver Rick Dreezen. After the positive debut at La Conca, we will await for KF drivers too, three drivers only in this competition: Karol Basz, Dalton Sargeant and Andy Chang. The Japanese driver Takashi Kasai will not attend the Winter Cup. Willing to confirm the good performance shown on the occasion of the opening race of the season is also the young driver Betsch, lined up in KF Junior.

The competition is getting going on Friday 15th of February with the eliminatory heats, scheduled at 10.50am. In the afternoon, from 12.50pm the first heats will be run as well as in the whole Saturday (16th), while on Sunday repechage is scheduled. The best of the Winter Cup will take place after drivers' parade (12.15pm), with the pre-finals and the finals, starting at 1.30pm.
