1st Round WSK Euro Series
28 February - 3 March
Circuito Int. La Conca (Italia)

Tony Kart Racing Team. The big 2013 championship at the starting grid with the WSK Euro

- Tony Kart Racing Team at the opening event of the continental Series, the WSK Euro at La Conca circuit (Italy)
- The competition at La Conca is the first out of four events we will attend in order to succeed in KZ1, KF and KF Junior categories.
- All of our official drivers will have many chances to fight for gaining the top positions

The competition will be available on streaming and thanks to the tv and press attendance, media will largely follow the event.

On the forthcoming weekend the first, important, championship at international level is beginning, the WSK Euro Series. The prestigious championship starts from the La Conca International Circuit and will see us at the track in all categories, KF Junior, KF and KZ.

Our team has just back from two preliminary competitions, the WSK Master and the Winter Cup of Lonato. Our Racing Team and our drivers distinguished and could gain important information useful for the immediate future.

The Italian competition opening the WSK Euro Series is the first out of four event that will take place at Zuera (Spain), Sarno (Italy) and Genk (Belgium), between March and June.

At La Conca all our drivers will be lined-up, with the four KZ1 drivers: Ardigò (no.51), Dreezen (no.50), Torsellini (no.48) and Camponeschi (no.49).

In the category without the gear, KF, all our four drivers will compete. Basz (no.236), Kasai (no.237), Chang (no.238) and Sargeant (no.239). The very young driver Betsch (no.355), will represent our Racing Team in the Junior class.

In both categories, KF and KF Junior, many are the drivers at the drive of Tony Kart chassis powered by Vortex engines and many of them have huge chances to succeed. The first round of the WSK Euro is undoubtedly the most important and prestigious of the beginning of season and for this reason medias will be attending and following the whole event.

Wednesday, 27th of February : "WSK TV Magazine" on Rai Sport 2 channel from 4.55pm to 5.15pm will introduce the event at La Conca.

Sunday, 3rd of March starting from 11.20am the live streaming of all competitions will be available at www.wsk.it.

Rai Sport 2 channel will broadcast the recording of all Finals of the WSK Euro Series on Monday 4th of March from 9pm to 9.30pm.

And finally, still Rai Sport 2 channel will broadcast on Friday 8th of March the new "WSK TV Magazine" episode, dedicated to the opening WSK Euro Series event.
