

41st TROFEO DELLE INDUSTRIE COMPLETES SPECTACULAR RUN

TOP-NOTCH BATTLES IMPRESS CROWDS AT LONATO

Lonato (I), 10.21.2012 - A spectacular Sunday of Autumn provided a perfect frame for the 41st edition of the Trofeo delle Industrie. After yesterday's heats, the top race meeting promoted by Parma Karting went through pre-finals and finals today at the South Garda Circuit in Lonato. The action proved spectacular in all the categories on-track, and the event was highly-international again since early morning. In KF2, Polish racer Igor Walilko (LH-BMB) took the honours while KF3 was won by Brit Callum Ilott (Zanardi-Parilla) who also prevailed in the overall standings for the Memorial Carlo Fabi trophy (right). A spectacular challenge in 60 Mini handed American Logan Sargeant victory for Tony Kart-LKE, while the KZ2 final went to Swede Joel Johansson.

Johansson, running with an Energy-TM package, managed to hit and retain the top by surviving a melee that involved Marcel Muller (CRG-TM) and Loris Spinelli (Formula K-TM). In the closing stages, he successfully increased his margin as he topped Alberto Cavalieri (BRM-Maxter) and Massimo Dante (CKR-TM) while Spinelli was later penalized.

In KF2, another early contact proved key putting out of contention for win favourites Sam Snell (Energy-Parilla) and Luca Corberi, who had won with a great recovery in the pre-final. After a brief stint in the lead by Croatian Martin Kodric (FA Kart-Vortex), a brilliant attack of Walilko handed him the lead. Kodric was second in front of Niklas Tiihonen (FK-Parilla).

The KF3 category ended up in the hands of WSK Master Series champ Ilott, who succeeded in an aggressive move at the "chiocciola" corner on fast-starting Italian Alessio Lorandi (Tony Kart-Vortex). Third went to another British racer, Lando Norris (FA Kart-Vortex), while Russian Nikita Sitnikov finished fourth for Tony Kart-BMB.

The Star-Spangled banner was held high in the 60 Mini category by Sargeant (Tony Kart-LKE). The young Ward Racing driver won a sensational duel with Italian Domenico Cicognini (Kosmic-LKE). After having won the Trofeo Margutti, Sargeant grabbed another valuable win and one to rely on for 2013.
