Attractive prizes at the German Kart Championship

In the 2016 season, the best placed drivers of the four grade series of the German Kart Championship are going to receive attractive prizes and support programs again. In addition to free of charge registrations and tires, the winners of all classes are going to receive a new ARAI kart helmet from the Point Racing company. Additionally they're going to get invitations to the selection of the ADAC Sports Foundation (DKM/DSKM) for the ADAC Formula 4 or ADAC TCR Germany and simulator test drives at Van Amersfoort Racing (DJKM) and Mücke Motorsport (DKM).

The German Kart Championship is providing attractive prizes for its winners in the 2016 season again. In all four series (DKM, DSKM, DJKM and DSKC), this year's winner is going to receive free of charge slick competition tires for a DMSB grade series the following season. Additionally the overall winners are going to get a voucher from the Point Racing company for a new ARAI kart racing helmet for the first time. Moreover the three winners of the DKM, DJKM and DSKM won't have to pay the registration fee for a DMSB grade series the following year. The first five drivers of the DSKC are going to receive 50% off the registration fee for a DMSB grade series (DKM or DSKM) the following year.

The best DKM and DSKM-driver with a DMSB license (placement within the top three; age 16-18) is going to receive an invitation to a screening of the ADAC Sports Foundation and a possible support program for the ADAC Formula 4 or ADAC TCR Germany. The winners of the DKM and DJKM are going to get free of charge simulator test drives. The Mücke Motorsport GmbH is going to invite the winner of the DKM, van Amersfoort Racing is providing the best junior with a free of charge test day.
