

Good performance for Stadsbader in Adria

The 2020 racing season has started in a positive way for Gilles Stadsbader in Adria on the occasion of the WSK Champions Cup.

The driver from Belgium showed a very good pace through the weekend. After a difficult Qualifying Practices, in which he has been stopped during his fastest lap, Stadsbader recovered many positions during the heats, thanks 2 big comebacks with slippery track. At the end he was 19th overall with a 14 places gained.

In the Prefinal A the Forza Racing driver confirmed his pace ending P3. Only in the Final he struggled in the second part of the race, after an encouraging start, and he crossed the line 9th.

Gilles Stadsbader, Forza Racing (Exprit/TM): «It's been a good season beginning, I'm overall happy with the pace. I did my best and my team too to allowed me to gain a lot of positions in the heats. I really want to say thanks to the entire team, to my mechanic and coach Jonathan.»

The next race will be the Winter Cup scheduled in Lonato from 13th to 16th of February
