

Laurens van Hoepen in Sweden to cancel Genk

After Genk's "thumbs down" weekend, Laurens van Hoepen is ready to return to defend the colors of the Ricky Flynn Motorsport team in Sweden.

In the third act of the FIA Karting European Championship, van Hoepen is called upon to return to the glories of the podium won in Angerville in the WSK Euro Series and even before the potential shown in Sarno.

The Dutchman, in fact, is working incessantly to find the feeling he needs in order to stay regularly in the positions that belong to him, so as to also recover positions in the championship.

Laurens van Hoepen, RFM (FA / Vortex): «The last race was very difficult, but I certainly didn't lose heart. I'm convinced that I have the means to stay with the front-runners; we just need to find the regularity that's been lacking in this last period. We'll try to get back to the top already this weekend in Kristianstad.»

The event will start tomorrow, Thursday 30, with the Free Practices. On Friday 31 will be placed the Qualifying Practices, whereas the heats are scheduled on Saturday 1 June and Sunday 2 June on morning, with the Final in the afternoon.

© photo: M.Perrucca

