Tony Kart Racing Team staff welcomes with great pleasure Alguersuari, an experienced driver able to reach the most prestigious category in the car-sporting field, F1, at only 19 years old, thus becoming the youngest entry driver in the formula history.

Jaime, even though he still runs F1, feels to be ready to enter the karting activity and compete in the very difficult KZ1 category, attending the most difficult competition of the season, the World Championship.

Such determination, the strong passion for karting together with his unmistakable talent, did not put the Tony Kart Racing Team in doubt at all, which soon added Jaime in his official Tony Kart-Vortex team, for the next big event in Varennes.

Before the CIK competition, Alguersuari will be at the track to perform some test sessions with our Racing Team. These tests will allow both our driver and the Tony Kart Racing Team staff to find out the best synergy.
